TAKE NOTICE:

- (1) failure to comply with this subpoena without lawful excuse is contempt of court and may result in your arrest.
- (2) the party on whose behalf this subpoena was issued may give you written notice of a date or time later than the date or time stated above to attend and produce the documents or things described in the schedule, in which case this subpoena has effect as if the date or time stated in the notice were stated in the subpoena.
- (3) you need not comply with this subpoena unless conduct money is paid, or tendered to you, a reasonable time before the day on which you would be required to attend the Court.
- (4) you have the right to apply to the court to have all or part of the subpoena set aside on any sufficient grounds including-
 - want of relevance; or
 - privilege, including but not limited to, sexual assault counselling privilege; or
 - oppressiveness, including oppressiveness because substantial expenses may not be reimbursed; or
 - non-compliance with the Uniform Civil Procedures Rules.
- (5) if you are not a party to these proceedings, your agent may attend and produce this subpoena and the documents or things described in the schedule at the date, time and place stated above or, instead of attending the court, you or your agent may deliver or send this subpoena or a copy of it and the documents and things described in the schedule to the Registry of the Court from which the subpoena was issued, not later than 2 clear business days before the day on which you are required to attend.
- (6) if you are not a party to the proceeding and you incur substantial loss or expense in complying with this subpoena, you may apply to the Court for an order that the party who requested the issue of the subpoena pay to you an amount in addition to conduct money to compensate you for the loss or expense, including legal costs, incurred in responding properly to the subpoena.
- (7) you may produce a copy of a document described in the schedule unless this subpoena states that the original document must be produced. A copy may be a paper copy or an electronic copy in an electronic file format approved by the registrar.
- (8) if you are producing more than one document or thing, the registrar may require you to provide a list of the documents or things being produced.
