Form 38 - Application for notice requiring witness to attend or produce a document of thing

QCAT

Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING FORM 38

Hearing notices: application for notice requiring witness to attend a hearing or produce document/thing at a hearing

Use this form if you believe a person should attend your hearing to provide evidence or produce documents, you can apply to QCAT to order this person to attend or produce the documents.

Only QCAT can order a person to attend a hearing or to produce documents by issuing an attendance notice. QCAT may charge a fee for this service.

If a person is willing to attend or produce a document you do not need to apply to QCAT.

Pursuant to section 97 of the Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2009 (Qld) the Tribunal may, by written notice, require a person to:

- · attend at a stated hearing of a proceeding to give evidence; or
- · produce a stated document or other thing for the Tribunal at a hearing of a proceeding.

You must state in the application form the reasons why you are requesting the document or information, or why the person is to be required to attend the hearing.

Important note: this application should be made with sufficient time before a Tribunal hearing date. The Tribunal may not issue the notice to produce or attend if there is insufficient time before a hearing for a notice to be issued. For example, applications should be submitted at least seven (7) days before the hearing.

Copies of the application and providing copies to other parties

For a minor civil dispute, two (2) copies must accompany the application form and all attachments.

For all other cases, except some children's or guardianship matters, three (3) copies must accompany the application form and all attachments. For some children's and guardianship matters, additional copies are not required.

When there is more than one respondent, extra copies of the application form and attachments are required for each additional respondent.

You must give a copy of the application to all parties to the proceeding as soon as practicable, and no later than seven (7) days after the application is filed. Visit the QCAT website for information on serving applications and documents.

Fees

You must pay the prescribed application fee when lodging your application. Visit the QCAT website for application fees.

Cash payments can be made in person at the QCAT Brisbane registry or your local Magistrates Court.

Cheque or money order payments are to be made out to 'Department of Justice and Attorney-General'.

Credit card payments can be made by submitting a Credit card payment authorisation form with your application and can only be accepted by post or in person.

You may apply to QCAT for a waiver of the fee on the grounds of financial hardship. To apply, you
